

Coco Peila Press Quotes

“Her versatile vocal abilities shine... Peila delivers challenging wordplay with the dexterity of an experienced battle rapper. She takes the rap industry to task, deconstructing the violent, misogynistic language to which rap fans have all grown accustomed.”

--Nastia Voynovskaya, East Bay Express

“Coco Peila is known for asking tough questions, all with the intention of uplifting her community. In a region where most songs that make it out the Bay and into the mainstream degrade the sisters, Coco dreams lofty dreams. She dreams of a better world for women and men. When she hits the stage, she makes this dance of creativity and grit look effortless.”

--MadLines Interview With A Muse

“What amazes us about Coco is how passionately she evokes for us the experience of being feminine in the world, particularly in the United States, and particularly for girls and women of color. Race has been a core heartland issue in the United States since the first immigrants landed on the continent hundreds of years ago. Coco brings it all back home from the perspective of the psyche and soul of a young woman.”

--Women Rising Radio

“Coco Peila is one of the Hip Hop musicians in the new class that is creating the new Bay Area sound.”

--JR Valrey, San Francisco Bay View